In part.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE.—Presidential.

Returns from all but 12 towns in New-Hampshire have been received. Allowing a Democratic majority of 300 in these towns, FREMONT'S plurality will be 5,700. In 1852 the vote was as follows:

PIERCE, Democrat.....39,907
SCOTT, Whig.....16,147
HALE, Free-Soil.....6,005

In Cheshire County, where PIERCE'S majority was 201, the vote is as follows:

FREMONT.....3,910
BUCHANAN.....2,309
FILLMORE.....51

Since the March election of this year, this is a Republican gain of 702, a Democratic loss of 96, and a Know-Nothing loss of 86; net Republican gain 814 in one county.

BUCHANAN'S majority.....10,915.

MICHIGAN—Presidential.

The Wolverines have done splendidly. The Democracy are very much disgusted at the turn affairs have taken. The Detroit Free Press (Buchanier) dolefully admits that "Black Republicanism has made a pretty clean sweep of Michigan;" and adds that there seems no reason to doubt the election of Republican candidates in all the Congressional Districts, and both branches of the Legislature will be largely Republican. The returns indicate a probable majority of 10,000 for FREMONT. The City of Detroit gives BUCHANAN a majority of 172; the contest having been very close and severe. The Germans in Detroit generally voted the Republican ticket.

The Detroit Advertiser says:

"General LEWIS CASS now will retire from the seat which he has brought into disrepute, and will give place to a man who will truly represent the feelings and principles of the people of Michigan. We make no exultation over his exit, yet cannot but regret that it had not been more in keeping with his real instincts, his age, and his character, in many respects, as a statesman. After ninety days more of public life, he will drop quietly into his place in private life, and will no more be a bone of contention to Michigan. His own party will be relieved of a weighty responsibility, and the friends of Freedom will have parted with a tardy recreant."

KENTUCKY—Presidential.

Returns are received (partly official) from forty Counties. Fourteen give BUCHANAN majorities, and the remainder are for the Americans,—giving FILLMORE so far a majority of 423, with sixty counties yet to hear from. We do not repeat our table.

FLORIDA—Presidential.

SAVANNAH, Friday, Nov. 7.

What few returns have been received from this State are in favor of BUCHANAN, and show an increase on the vote of October, when the Democrats carried the State by over 300 for Governor and 700 for Congressman.

ALABAMA—Presidential.

The Democrats claim to have carried the State by 20,000 majority. The above are the only returns that have yet come to hand.

THE NEW PRESIDENT.

Mr. Buchanan's Home—His Public Policy—His Sentiments concerning Kansas—The Ostend Manifesto confessed to be a Blunder and to be Repudiated—Interesting Speculations.

Special Correspondence of the N. Y. Daily Times.

LANCASTER, Pa., Friday, Nov. 7, 1856.

I returned to this place not more than two hours ago, from a visit to the beautiful residence of the President elect, at Wheatland, and although many of the impressions I received there may surprise you, as they certainly did me, I cannot refrain from communicating them to your impartial journal, subject to such construction as you may think they merit. I am convinced that many of the opinions which have been engendered during the heat of recent party strife, in the minds of persons of all shades of politics, both of the North and South, respecting the character, tendency, and probable future policy of Mr. BUCHANAN, require modification, and that it will be a public service to allay such of those apprehensions as are not founded in reality. The views I shall express may not in all respects meet with your sympathy and approbation, but this will not prevent me from writing with the frankness which a long acquaintance with your paper has led me to know that you so cordially and courteously appreciate.

I left Philadelphia, for Lancaster, three days ago, and had the advantage of making the journey in the day time. The country through which we passed is beautiful, richly cultivated, and of endless variety of quiet, pastoral scenery. It has not the grandeur which exists on the borders of some of our New-York rivers, but, as a fellow-passenger remarked, the cheerful aspect of all one sees begets, necessarily, good humor and a feeling of satisfaction. Lancaster itself is the perfect specimen of a Pennsylvania city in the olden time. Should any modern Rip Van Winkle suddenly appear there, he would slide as naturally into the ways of the hour as though his absence had been that of only a day. The Railroad station might surprise him; but the substantial, dingy, yet pleasant looking brick houses must have had nearly the same odd look for many years. Even the growth of the place bespeaks rather the increase of the old, than an addition of what is new. Broad, honest, sturdy faces and figures meet you at every turn, and a feeling of pride naturally arises at surveying the sinew and muscle of the land. The public houses at first look shabby, but a short experience of comfortable beds, and fare as superior as possible to what can be obtained in Philadelphia, soon reconciles the traveler to his lot. MICHAEL'S, where I am staying, and where Mr. BUCHANAN not unfrequently meets his friends, is a marvel of outside plainness and solid, substantial comfort.

Wheatland, or rather Mr. BUCHANAN'S house, lies about a mile from Lancaster. Those who remember the Hermitage, Ashland and Marshfield, are not surprised, on approaching it, to find that the great Democratic statesman has selected for his retreat a spot so quiet and so resplendent with natural loveliness, that it would appear next to impossible for the noise and bustle of the world to penetrate there. I was reminded by it of a rich dwelling in the midst of a highly-cultivated oak opening, which I once saw in the Far West. Fragrance filled the atmosphere, and the silence was unbroken, excepting by the gentle rustling of leaves, as the trees were agitated by the wind. The thick foliage prevents a close scrutiny of Mr. BUCHANAN'S dwelling until after advancing through the gate, some distance from the road. It is a wide, two-story, double brick house, painted red, with wings, a broad, pleasant entrance and wide hall, at the extremity of which latter a passage leads into the left wing, which is occupied by Mr. BUCHANAN as a study. Here he receives the greater part of his visitors. A negro servant ushered us into this room, and informed us that "Mr. BUCHANAN would be with us in a few minutes." It seems he had lady callers, whose voices from the drawing-room quite annihilated the idea of a "bachelor" residence. Meanwhile we looked around; and as two sides of the comfortable apartment were partially occupied by bookcases, endeavored to pick up some notion of the probable literary tastes of the owner. Many of the works in the library were of a religious character. Odd numbers of the Presbyterian lay strewed about, and "putting that and that together," we came to the conclusion that Mr. BUCHANAN belonged to that staid and respectable denomination. A table in the centre of the room was covered with pamphlets, and in various parts of it were easy chairs, not too luxurious to labor in, covered with green morocco. Various stumps of cigars around the fire-place indicated addiction to the weed, and my companion and myself were engaged in discussing the probabilities respecting the past proprietorship of a quid on the hearth, when a quick, heavy tread in the hall warned us to put on our most demure and innocent looks, as we were about to see the next PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

The first remark of a stranger concerning Mr. BUCHANAN, would naturally be, "What a fine old English gentleman!" I had been introduced to him many years ago at Gadsby's Hotel in Washington; but the interview then was of short duration. This time I had possession of him for several hours. One of the first remarks he made, elicitated by the presentation of a New-York caricature, was, that the portraits which had been made of him during the canvass were mostly all caricatures; that "those who had not seen him must imagine him, from his effigies, to be as grum as an ogre, whereas he had scarcely ever known an uncheerful moment in his life." In fact, in spite of the weight of responsibility he evidently feels, his countenance is the mirror of happy thoughts, and a benignant disposition. He looks a hale, temperate man of sixty, of massive intellect, hard, undaunted energy; but with caution as the predominant trait of his moral and intellectual character. I judged him to be one of those naturally impetuous, daring characters who, by practical experience of the folly of yielding to impulse, has gradually acquired the habit of waiting for "sober second thoughts" to check and govern his every action. His countenance shows this. Occasionally his face will lighten up, both of his large blue eyes will distend, and listeners are compelled to sink their gaze before his profound, scrutinizing look. Suddenly, however, one of his eyes half closes, his head slightly inclines towards one side, and every word appears to be weighed in the balance before it is uttered. You always find that you are conversing with an emphatically great man, and his unpretending, unostentatious simplicity adds rather than detracts from this impression, while his unaffected amiability and hospitality win your heart, even where the judgment has resolved to make resistance. I am a Republican and he is a Democrat; but I pay him this willing tribute, that he approaches as nearly to my ideal of a gentleman of the old school as any one it has ever been my good fortune to meet.

Mr. BUCHANAN was kind enough to make me acquainted with his niece, the presiding grace of his fair domains; and, but that the sincerest homage to beauty, innocence, and every virtue and charm which can adorn a high-minded and intelligent young lady, is respectful silence, I would endeavor to show how grossly they have erred who have ridiculed, as a bachelor establishment, the future domestic arrangement of the White House.

Perhaps one of the strongest feelings which burn within the breast of Mr. BUCHANAN, is pride in his native State. He is an out-and-out Pennsylvanian. It is now well understood that he had no intention, when in London, of permitting his name to be used as a candidate for the Presidency. Written to, and personally urged, as he was, by Democrats in all parts of the country, to become the standard-bearer of their party, he returned, for a long period, no other answer than a peremptory refusal. His aspiration was to employ the latter years of his life in writing the work which he has so long contemplated, and for which he made such extensive researches. It was only, to use his own words, "the ground swell" from Pennsylvania that caused him to change his maturely-considered determination. From all parts of "the Keystone State, loud remonstrances poured in upon him, and he was threatened with loss of esteem and popularity, where he valued it most, if he did not accept the honors which were offered to him. If in Pennsylvania, a dead Pennsylvania dog is at all times better than a living lion elsewhere, it can be conceived what must have been the sentiment when a chance contest of producing a genuine king from their own forests, ruffle over the land. Mr. BUCHANAN does not, therefore, consider his nomination due to either the South or the North; nor does he owe thanks to any of the pretenders, set busy in your streets, "without whom," as they cackle, "he could not have been the choice of the Cincinnati Convention. He looks first to the people, and them to his fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania, who, from first to last, have been true to him in the recent contest.

It has been a common remark, of late, that Mr. BUCHANAN was the sectional candidate of the South. I have no doubt that he has been sincere in the fears he has expressed that the bitter feeling engendered, both North and South, by the slavery question, menaced the existence of the Union; but I would stake my life that the policy of his Administration will prove that partisans of extreme measures on both sides will be checked by him, and that partisans of the school of GARRISON and TAPPAN, will meet with no more severe rebuke than that of the New-Orleans Delta, the Richmond Enquirer, Governor WISE, and JEFFERSON DAVIS. In the course of the late campaign, Mr. BUCHANAN has [illegible] with profound emotion, regretting the [illegible] between different sections of the Republic; but I have not been able to put my [illegible] upon a solitary fact which would prove him to [illegible] and fears in a one-sided or partisan spirit. On the contrary, I attribute the anxiety with which he repudiates the pretence that he is exclusively a Southern candidate, and the frequency with which he has, in public and private, fallen back upon [illegible] and, above all, the people of Pennsylvania, as Free State—as the handiwork of his own [illegible] to an unalterably-fixed determination of [illegible] reference to the Compromises, as the basis of [illegible] during his administration.

[illegible] to Kansas. If I should form an opinion, it would be that Mr. BUCHANAN prefers, as an individual, to see the [illegible] a non-slaveholding State, [illegible] Union without Slavery, [illegible] sincere conviction that [illegible] the arena of conflict, [illegible] and that the only true [illegible] the difficulty, is to [illegible] privileges, to arrange [illegible] draws the distinction between [illegible] of the Territories and the people of [illegible] from the basis of the Kansas-Nebraska [illegible] the right of Congress to legislate, hereafter, more than is absolutely requisite, respecting the latter. His hope, I believe, to be, that the Kansas question will take such a shape this Winter, and in the Spring, that it will be virtually decided before his administration begins. If not, he will adhere strictly to the lawful decision of the people of Kansas; that is, if they apply for admission, and Congress admits them, as a Free State, he will approve of the bill, if they desire to hold slaves and Congress sanctions their wish, he will not interpose a veto. In a word, he will look, in this matter, neither to the Northern to the South, but to Kansas.

A great deal of talk has been made at out the Ostend Manifesto—perhaps with a just desire to repudiate that document. History will, however, show that the gentlemen who signed that famous paper were misled into the course they took by the representations of President PIERCE himself. It was the common opinion, in 1855–6, at Washington, among members of the Cabinet, that Cuba might be obtained by a coup d'etat. It was erroneously believed there, that the people of the United States were nearly unanimous in desiring to see Cuba annexed to the Union, and that the weakness and poverty of Spain would render it impossible for the Court of Queen ISABELLA to resist threats coupled with the offer of a brilliant bribe. Mr. PIERCE was convinced of this, and Mr. MARCY was very nearly of the same way of thinking. In consequence, Mr. SOULE was urged and expected to pursue the vehement and aggressive course at Madrid which he did. The most was made of the so-called "outrages" of the time, and the press of the country rang with declarations of what great things we would do! Verbal messages to Ministers MASON, SOULE and BUCHANAN had them to convene, with a predetermined purpose, at Ostend, and to second the policy of President PIERCE; and out of the meetings held there sprang the manifesto. Mr. BUCHANAN signed it, under a false impression, conveyed to him from Washington. As time passed on, the absurdity of the policy of the Administration [illegible] came to President [illegible] and [illegible] MARCY. To [illegible] his Administration the most peaceful and mild aggressive of any we have known since the days of ADAMS.

Mr. BUCHANAN is eminently a man who hates extremes. When the Federalist Party became rampant in its centralization progress, he abandoned it. He has veered away from all associations with which he has ever been connected at the very moment when they have become too exaggerated for what he has deemed the interest of the country. He does not believe that the same medicine is good for all diseases, nor that the same policy is applicable at all times and under all circumstances. Judging, therefore, of the future by the past, I have arrived at the conviction, that his accession to the Presidential Chair will not endanger the interests of the country, and that, while his quondam enemies will be agreeably disappointed by his administration, his ultra Southern and fillibustering friends will not receive from him the indorsement of their views which they now anticipate.

I close for the present. I leave Mr. BUCHANAN to laugh with Governor FOSTER over the newspaper attempts to manufacture his Cabinet, and the "reliable" (!) intelligence concerning Ministries abroad, Custom-House appointments, and who is to lead him by the nose, with which some of your cotemporaries, of the Satanic stripe, regale their readers, assured that those who believe such rumors count without their host.

Political Items and Incidents.

The most extraordinary efforts were made to defeat Mr. BURLINGAME in Massachusetts. In one of the hotels within his district, twenty voters were colonized from other Wards so as to vote against him. In Cambridge, 160 persons were hunted up who had not paid taxes, and were therefore not entitled to vote, and their taxes were paid for them by the opposition. It is said that over $10,000 were expended to secure his defeat. There are a great many men of high standing in Massachusetts, who would consider it an honor to lick the boots of Col. PRESTON S. BROOKS.

In Worcester County, Mass., the Republicans did not unite with the North Americans on anything but President. Yet their local officers were nearly all successful by very large majorities. Their candidate for Congress, ELI THAYER, has twice as many votes as DEWITT, (American,) or 8,786 to 4,264, a plurality of 4,522. Their Senators, District Attorney, Sheriff, Clerk of Courts, &c., are all chosen by rising 3,000 majority, or some 8,000 votes to 5,000 for the Gardner Coalition ticket.

Accounts from Chicago, from Cincinnati, from Troy, from Hartford, from Waterbury, and from many other places where Germans abound, state that they voted almost unanimously for FREMONT. The English, Welsh, Scotch and French mostly followed them in this good example, but the Irish, as a general thing, stuck fast to the "rigiler Dimicratic" Party. The Auburn Advertiser says that, in that section of the State, five-sixths of the Irish voted for the Republican ticket.

The Troy Whig says that the recent defeat of the Fillmore party in this State is due entirely to "some missteps of the Americans themselves as time will show." This is probably so. The Dispatch, of this City, calls it by another name, and says the defeat was due to the "deliberate treachery" of men high in the Fillmore Councils who were working for BUCHANAN all the time.

The Presidential Electors chosen on Tuesday last will be called by the Governors of States to meet in each State Capitol on the first Wednesday of December, and cast their vote, and choose a messenger to carry it sealed to Washington. On the second Wednesday of February the returns will be counted by Congress and declared.

In seventeen towns in Vermont Mr. FILLMORE did not get a single vote; in seven towns he received one vote each; in six he got two votes each, and in the remaining towns his vote ranged between three and forty—the latter being the highest number received in any town.

The vote in the Five Points was as follows: BUCHANAN, 5[illegible]; FILLMORE, 15; FREMONT, 17! If it had not been for the missionaries in that region, FREMONT'S vote would probably have fallen below FILLMORE'S.

Out of 450 firemen in Manchester, N. H., 37 voted for BUCHANAN, 9 for FILLMORE, and 369 for FREMONT.

It is rumored in this City that Col. FREMONT will be elected United States Senator from New-York in place of Hon. HAMILTON FISH, whose term expires next 4th of March.

In New-York and the New-England States FREMONT'S vote exceeds BUCHANAN'S by about 210,000.

The Richmond Enquirer deals in the loftiest kind of "high falutin" in speaking of the result of the Election. Hear it:

"The potent voice of the Democracy has spoken the consecrated words, "Peace, be still," and before its presence the elements of faction and fusion of Know-Nothingism and Abolition have subsided, and the dove of peace spreads her halcyon wing over the lately troubled waters."

The Richmond Whig had some funny appeals to voters to rally at the polls on election day. Here is one of them:

"WHY?—Why art thou cast down, oh! my soul, and why art thou disquieted within me?' Because the Gibraltar has proved itself a humbug and a nuisance. Down with the Gibraltar! VOTE EARLY."

GREAT INCENDIARY FIRE IN SYRACUSE—LOSS ESTIMATED AT A MILLION DOLLARS.

SYRACUSE, Saturday, Nov. 8.

At 3 o'clock this morning the largest fire that has ever visited our city broke out in the First Ward, and, in the short space of three hours, over twelve acres were burnt over, and about one hundred buildings consumed. The fire originated in the barn back of GRANT'S Hotel, which had not been occupied for two or three years. It immediately communicated to GRANT'S Hotel, occupied by BARNEY GRANT, which was consumed. The loss on the building is estimated at $5,000. The store of Mr. MCGUIRE then caught fire, and was soon burned down—loss $5,000. The flames then spread to the new and magnificent building, owned by Messrs. SLATTERLY & FORD, and soon it was in a mass of ruins. It was occupied by LYNCH BROTHERS, who had just got in an entire new stock of goods. The loss on the building will be about $10,000—insured for $4,000. The LYNCHES will lose about $10,000—insured for $3,000. A large number of wooden buildings in the rear and adjoining block were consumed. The Avery Block, owned by L. G. AVERY, was entirely destroyed—loss, $10,000; insurance not ascertained. The Bank of Salina was also consumed—loss on the building, $5,000. All the books and papers of the Bank were saved. The Post-Office and Telegraph office were destroyed, but we learn that all the letters and papers were saved.

The water at the reservoir was turned off, and consequently the hydrants were useless. A strong west wind was blowing at the time, and our citizens were compelled to stand and see their property consumed, with nothing to stop its progress. The entire loss can fall little short of one million of dollars, and may reach more. Over one hundred families have been rendered homeless. The fire undoubtedly was the work of an incendiary.

The Schooner J. G. Deshler ashore—Forty-three men in Peril.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Saturday, Nov. 8.

The wind, which has been blowing fiercely most of the day from the South, has now changed to the Northwest, and a perfect gale is blowing. It is reported that forty-three men, mostly farmers, were on the schooner J. G. Deshler, ashore nine miles above the city, taking off wheat, when the gale came on, and that they cannot now get off, as the sea is making a clean breach over the vessel. It is feared they will all be lost. A team has been sent down for a life boat.

A PLEASANT GATHERING.—There was a pleasant little extempore gathering of a social character at the Astor House, on Saturday evening, at which there was quite a brilliant array of guests, especially from abroad. Among them were Mr. JOHN DELANE, editor of the London Times, Mr. FILLMORE, the special correspondent of that paper in the United States, and Mr. BANCROFT DAVIS, its regular correspondent in this City; Mr. GODKINS, who has just arrived as the special American correspondent of the London Daily News; Mr. OLIPHANT, the well-known English author of sundry valuable works upon the countries of the East; Mr. GALLIARDET, formerly of the Courrier des Etats Unis, and Mr. F. P. BLAIR, the veteran of the American political press.

Mr. DELANE, we understand, returns to England in the steamer of Wednesday next,—having devoted his ordinary annual vacation to a glimpse at an American Presidential election, in preference to the Coronation at Moscow. His Summer tours in former years enabled him to be present at several of the Paris revolutions—the siege of Rome—the Crimean war, and part of the Schleswig-Holstein campaign. Mr. FILLMORE will remain in this country at least until Spring;—he was the correspondent of the Times from Schleswig-Holstein during the war, and subsequently from Australia. Mr. GODKINS is the writer of the valuable letters which appeared in the Daily News from Silistria and its vicinity, at the opening of the Eastern war.

We believe all but one of these gentlemen now visit the United States for the first time.

$200,000 DAMAGE.

A Row Principally upon the Insurance Companies.

About 8 o'clock yesterday morning, an alarm of fire was given by a private watchman, who discovered a light in the sub-cellar of No. 29 Warren-street, which building was occupied by HAZARD, HARRAL & RISLEY as a drug store. The flames were then issuing in such a rate as almost to prevent the possibility of getting the money. They worked furiously, but were unable to prevent the utter destruction of one of the finest buildings in that part of the city, and the loss of over one-half a million of property. The buildings on Warren-street were each five stories high, and marble fronts. The druggists above named occupied one; JAMES MCKEARY & Co., Astor's fancy laces, occupied the others. From the rear of these buildings the fire extended to Nos. 27 and 25, on Murray-street, two handsome five-story brown stone front buildings. No. 25 was damaged by fire, but principally by water, to the amount of $2,000. The wall of No. 29 Murray-street fell upon No. 27, and crushed the floors through to the cellar. The west wall of No. 29 Warren-street fell upon Nos. 31 and 33, and damaged them about $1,000 each. It was broad daylight before the fire was extinguished. West Broadway was filled with deranged goods throughout the day.

No. 29 Warren-street was occupied by HAZARD, HARRAL & RISLEY, druggists. Loss $150,000; insurance $90,000. Building owned by Joseph Hoxsey, valued at $25,000; insured at $12,000.

No. 27 Warren-street, occupied by JAS. MCOMBER & Co. (fancy goods). Loss $120,000; insured at $60,000. Building owned by Thos. H. Faron, valued at $25,000; insured at $14,000.

No. 27 and 29 Murray-street, first floor, occupied by HALSTED, BRAKAW & Co., dry goods. Loss $60,000; insured $35,000, as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Howard Insurance Company | $5,000 |
| New-York Equitable Insurance Company | 10,000 |
| New-York Fire and Marine Insurance Co. | 10,000 |
| Hartford Company, of Hartford | 5,000 |
| Washington Insurance Company | 5,000 |
| Irving Insurance Company | 5,000 |
| Firemen's Insurance Company | 5,000 |
| North American Insurance Company | 5,000 |

Second and third floors, occupied by VAN WAGNAN, YEOMAN & Co., dealers in cloths. Loss $60,000—fully insured.

Fourth and fifth floors, occupied by MARVIN & BRO., clothiers. Loss $40,000—fully insured. Building owned by A. & D. S. HIGGINS, cost $68,000—total loss. Fully insured.

No. 25 Murray-street, first floor, occupied by RUSSELL, HARMON & WILLIAMS, dealers in shoes. Portion of the stock was removed. The loss, principally by water, was $10,000. Fully insured, as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Home Insurance Company | $10,000 |
| City Home Insurance Company | 5,000 |
| People's (Worcester) Insurance Company | 5,000 |
| Cochituate, (Boston) | 5,000 |
| North America, (Boston) | 5,000 |

Second floor, occupied by F. A. MCKINNON & BRO., dealers in shirts and drawers. Loss $5,000. Insured fully.

Third floor, occupied by P. H. & W. WILLIAMS, dealers in fringes, tassels, &c. Loss $5,000. Fully insured.

Fourth and fifth floors, occupied by ANDERSON & JOHNSON, importers of embroideries, &c. Loss $50,000. Fully insured. This building was on a line—forming Nos. 35 Murray and 80 Church-street.

Total damage to the two buildings, owned by Mr. HENTER, $8,000; fully insured.

P. & W. COOK & Co., Dry Goods Dealers, had a large quantity of goods stored in the fifth floor of No. 80 Church-street, which were damaged $10,000. Insured for $20,000, as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Security Insurance Co. | $5,000 |
| Boylston Insurance Co. (Boston) | 5,000 |
| American Insurance Co. (Philadelphia) | 5,000 |
| A Providence Insurance Co. | 5,000 |

The rear of No. 80 Church-street also caught fire, the basement occupied as a grocery store, the first floor as an iron depot, and the upper floors by a family. The damage to the grocery store occupied by C. F. O'BRIEN, is estimated at $300. WM. H. TOWNSEND occupied the first floor as a store for fabrics for wheels and machinery, damage trifling; loss to the upper floor occupied by M[illegible] & Co., [illegible] $2,000; insured for $1,000 in the Security Co. The [illegible] over the building, and [illegible] loss by [illegible].

The rear of No. 41 Murray-street was damaged by the falling in of the adjacent building, which demolished the roof, carrying away the floors down to the sub-cellar. The first floor of this building was occupied by THOMAS E. BISSET & Co., hardware dealers. Their loss is stated as $15,000, which is fully covered by insurance. The upper stories were occupied by FATTEUX, LANE & MERIAMS, dealers in boots and shoes, who also are fully insured. Mr. G. E. CORNWELL, the owner of the building, has lost $2,000; he is fully insured.

Nos. 41 and 43 Warren-street, first floor, occupied by J. A. SWEARAN & Co., staple and fancy goods. Loss $3,000, fully insured. The building owned by Mr. SHAFFNER; damage $200, fully insured.

ALARM OF FIRE.

Shortly after 12 o'clock this morning the bell sounded an alarm of fire. It was discovered that the alarm proceeded from the blazing of the smouldering ruins of the fire in Murray and Warren streets.

Destructive Conflagration—Explosion of a Steam Boiler—Two Men Dangerously Scalded.

At 3½ o'clock on Friday afternoon, a destructive fire broke out in the extensive vinegar manufactory of Mr. LEONARD BROWN, Nos. 73 and 74 West Fifth-st., caused by the explosion of the steam-boiler used in manufacturing cider into vinegar. The pieces of the boiler flew in all directions, and in a very short time both buildings were completely enveloped in flames. Notwithstanding that the firemen were early on the ground, all their efforts proved fruitless in subduing the flames. All that remains of the two buildings now are merely the bare walls.

Mr. BROWN'S loss will not probably amount to over $20,000, of which $12,000 is insured in the Peoples, Broadway and Stuyvesant Insurance Companies.

A large, new five-story building, adjoining the factory, was saved from destruction by the precautions of the firemen, and escaped with only $100 damage. This building is owned by Mr. J. W. SQUIRWICK, and is fully insured.

The Engineer, Mr. JOHN GILCHRIST, and a Cooper named —— BAKER were severely if not fatally scalded, and were conveyed to their respective residences, where they now lie in great agony.

The boiler was a new one, and only put in operation on Friday morning. It was manufactured by W. H. ADAMS, corner of Eleventh-avenue and Twenty-ninth-street.

The Fire Marshal was present at the fire, and will fully investigate the cause of the explosion.

ACCIDENT BY BEING RUN OVER BY A FIRE ENGINE.

Whilst the firemen were running to the above fire a man named DONOHOE was run over by Engine Company No. 18, and injured to such an extent that his life is despaired of. He was taken up and conveyed to the New-York Hospital, where he lies in great distress.

FIRE IN EAST TWENTY-SIXTH-STREET.

About 9 o'clock on Saturday morning a fire broke out in the house No. 202 East Twenty-sixth-st., originating from a straw bed, but was speedily extinguished. There seemed to be some foul play about the transaction, and the Fire Marshal was requested to investigate the matter.

FIRE IN A LUMBER YARD.

A fire broke out last evening at 6 o'clock in the lumber yard of Mr. DUNHAM, at No. 79 East Thirteenth-street. Damage $1,000. No insurance.

Ordination.

Rev. J. COSTING, under appointment by the A. B. C. F. M., as missionary to the Armenian Mission, was ordained last evening, at the Church of the Puritans. The ceremony was solemn and impressive; and the sermon, preached by Rev. Dr. CHEEVER, inculcating the Gospel

A Lesson in Hospitality and Humility.

A while ago, a young gentleman visited a favorite watering-place, and was introduced to a distinguished clergyman of the Church, who for special reasons, lived on small means, at a low rate, in a quiet family mansion. Assuming that he occupied each of the visitor's dwelling must have struck him as a low rate, in a quiet locality somewhere

Barnum Lazy.—On the evening preceding the election Tom Conway made a rousing Republican speech at Cincinnati, setting forth in the most eloquent manner the evils to be apprehended from the election of Buchanan. It is a pity Mr. Conway couldn't have made it in season to have it printed and circulated among the voters. It would have done much good.

Mr. Barnum very properly recommends some "kind and philanthropic agency" to go about "bring in these neglected little ones within the influence of the Public Schools." What an outlook it makes for the future of the men and women who are to be the voters and laborers in this City! How many dissolute, ignorant citizens are to be manufactured from the present time between two and three thousand of these poor children under daily instruction.

The Twenty-second—Ward Hotel.

The preliminary examination into the causes of the death of Alderman Divver occupied the attention of the Coroner and a number of witnesses during the entire day, at the Coroner's office, in the Tombs building. The testimony elicited was of a very conflicting character, and the case will be resumed this morning at 10 o'clock, when it is expected that the investigation will be brought to a close. The following is a brief abstract of the testimony taken yesterday:

Dr. Frederick Foster, sworn, said—I reside at No. 101 West Forty-third street. I am a physician by profession. I was called to see Alderman Divver on the 4th of December, at the Gilsey House, situated at the corner of Broadway and Fifth avenue, on the second floor, in the front room. I was called by Mr. Clarence Peaslee, who is a resident of the Gilsey House. I found the deceased sitting in a chair. I had never seen him before. I found him suffering from a severe attack of asthma. I remained with him about half an hour. I then left him in charge of Mr. Peaslee. I returned to the house about 9 o'clock in the evening. I found the deceased in bed. He was suffering from the same attack of asthma. I remained with him about half an hour. I then left him in charge of Mr. Peaslee. I returned to the house about 11 o'clock. I found the deceased in bed. He was suffering from the same attack of asthma. I remained with him about half an hour. I then left him in charge of Mr. Peaslee. I returned to the house about 1 o'clock in the morning. I found the deceased in bed. He was suffering from the same attack of asthma. I remained with him about half an hour. I then left him in charge of Mr. Peaslee. I returned to the house about 3 o'clock in the morning. I found the deceased in bed. He was suffering from the same attack of asthma. I remained with him about half an hour. I then left him in charge of Mr. Peaslee. I returned to the house about 5 o'clock in the morning. I found the deceased in bed. He was suffering from the same attack of asthma. I remained with him about half an hour. I then left him in charge of Mr. Peaslee. I returned to the house about 7 o'clock in the morning. I found the deceased in bed. He was suffering from the same attack of asthma. I remained with him about half an hour. I then left him in charge of Mr. Peaslee. I returned to the house about 9 o'clock in the morning. I found the deceased in bed. He was suffering from the same attack of asthma. I remained with him about half an hour. I then left him in charge of Mr. Peaslee. I returned to the house about 11 o'clock in the morning. I found the deceased in bed. He was suffering from the same attack of asthma. I remained with him about half an hour. I then left him in charge of Mr. Peaslee. I returned to the house about 1 o'clock in the afternoon. I found the deceased in bed. He was suffering from the same attack of asthma. I remained with him about half an hour. I then left him in charge of Mr. Peaslee. ## MEDICAL.

A new edition of this important medical work.

HUMAN FRAILTY, OR PHYSIOLOGICAL MISCHIEF.

It is humanely dissected, and describes the various and direful effects of all diseases of a delicate nature; it contains clear instructions for the perfect restoration of health in the shortest possible time, whether arising from ignorance, indiscretion, or early abuse; also a professional dissertation, showing the results of chemical tests, and examination of spermatozoa, by the Professor's newly-constructed microscope, with powerful lenses, also instructions for the treatment and cure of every stage and form of disease, from whatever cause originating. Every page is fraught with interest, and the English public should possess a work which unfolds the mysteries of the patient's constitution. Price 25 cents. Sent post paid to any address.

This invaluable work may be obtained, as well as all Artificials, from DR. BARROW, No. 167 Prince-st., (New-York), and Intermediate stations. To be without it is a folly. To be consulted, as usual, from 11 A. M. till 2 P. M., and from 4 till 8 in the evening.

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA.

The original and genuine article!!! As a Spring and Fall purifier of the blood, and greatest tonic for the system it stands unrivaled; acting simultaneously upon the stomach, bowels, kidneys, liver, and the cutaneous surface, determines and carries off the principles of putrescency and corruption, and gently stimulates, while it disinthrals and expels from the stomach and bowels all that is irritating. Thus they are cleansed and restored to a sound and healthy condition.

Prepared and sold by A. B. and D. SANDS, Druggists, No. 100 Fulton-st., New-York, and by druggists generally.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.—DR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures every kind of humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over 1,600 cases, and never failed, except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over 200 certificates of its virtues, all within a radius of 5 miles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a running sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of boils.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth or stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of scrofula.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the eyes and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Boston, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I try the effects of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it but what still came after a trial, it always speaks for itself. There are some things about this herb that appear to me remarkable—first, that it grows in our pastures, in common with other plentiful, and yet its value has never been fully discovered to it in 1845; second, that it should be a remedy of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it, and sold about six bottles per day. In April, 1854, I peddled over a thousand bottles per day.

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults, one table spoonful per day; children over 8 years dessert spoonful; children from 5 to 8 years, tea-spoonful. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

DR. KENNEDY gives personal attendance in bad cases of scrofula.

Manufactured by DONALD KENNEDY, No. 120 Warren-st., Roxbury, Mass. Price $1.

NEW AND IMPORTANT DISCOVERY IN THE SCIENCE OF MEDICINE.—TRIESEMAR.—None are genuine unless the engravings of the Seals of the Patent Office of England, the Seals of the Ecole de Pharmacie de Paris, and the Imperial College of Vienna, are fixed upon each wrapper, and around each case.

Sold by DR. A. BARROW—Member of the Imperial College of Vienna, and Royal College of Surgeons, London, who may be personally consulted at his residence, No. 167 Prince-st., (few blocks west of Broadway,) New-York from 11 o'clock in the morning till 2, and from 4 o'clock till 8 in the evening, (Sundays excepted.)

TRIESEMAR No. 1.—Is the remedy of general and local debility, loss of virile power, premature decay, and all the distressing consequences arising from early abuse, &c.; all physical impediments vanish like magic before its influence, thus rendering its use invaluable to those entering the marriage state.

TRIESEMAR No. 2.—Entirely eradicates all traces of those disorders which copaiba and cubebs have so long been thought an antidote for to the ruin of the health of a vast portion of the population.

TRIESEMAR No. 3.—Is the great European remedy for that class of disorders which, unfortunately, the English physician treats with mercury to the inevitable destruction of the patient's constitution, and which all the Sarsaparilla in the world cannot remove.

TRIESEMAR Nos. 1, 2, and 3, are prepared in the form of a lozenge, devoid of taste or smell, and can be carried in the waistcoat pocket. Sold in a case containing a separate dose as administered by Valpeau, Lallemand, Roux, Ricord, &c., &c. Price $5 cash, or four cases in one for $9, which saves $3; and in $27 cases whereby there is a saving of $9. To be had wholesale and retail, of Dr. BARROW, No. 167 Prince-st., a few blocks west of Broadway, New-York.

Special arrangements having been made with the various Expresses, the nine-dollar cases of the Triesmar, and the larger sizes, will be forwarded by Dr. Barrow, carriage paid, immediately on receiving a remittance, to any part of the world, securely packed, and addressed according to the instructions of the writer, thus securing to the public genuine European preparations, and effectually protecting them from spurious and pernicious imitations. The three-dollar cases sent as usual, but not free of carriage.

Consultation and attendance from 11 A. M. till 2 P. M., and from 4 till 8.

RICORD'S PRACTICE.—DR. HAMMOND would inform the public that he may be consulted, confidentially, on all those important diseases which constitute his specialty, at his rooms No. 516 Broadway, opposite the St. Nicholas. Dr. H. is an ex-pupil of Drs. Cornac and Ricord, of this City, and in order to perfect himself in this branch of Medicine, removed to Paris in 1846, where he studied four years, in the celebrated Hospital du Midi, under Ricord himself, who is the first living surgeon in diseases of the genito-urinary organs. Returning to this city in 1850 he established "Ricord's Practice," a method of treatment which, from rapidity of cure and permanent relief to the constitutional evil, revolutionized medical science, in this class of maladies. Dr. HAMMOND'S success for the last six years has been unparalleled, so much so that numerous imitators have sprung up, who are as ignorant of medicine generally as they are of this important branch of it. Consultations in English or French, personally or by letter. In the 1st o'clock, and from 4 to 5 daily. C. D. HAMMOND, M. D.

PRIVATE CONSULTATIONS.—DR. WATSON has, for a long series of years, confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has treated not less than twenty thousand cases, without the slightest failure. The remedies are mild, and do not keep the patient from business, or expose him to detection. An immediate application should always be made; but if the disease has lain concealed in the system, or has spread by injudicious treatment, the undersigned knows himself especially competent to treat such cases, by a method at once speedy and effectual. Dr. W. is in regular medical attendance from 7 in the morning until 2 at night, at his consulting rooms and residence, No. 55 Walker-st., a few doors west of Broadway. W. WATSON, M. D.,

Formerly Surgeon to the Lock Hospital.

$1,000 FORFEITED AND NO CHARGE UNLESS CURED.—DR. HUNTER cures when the treatment of other physicians and all other remedies fail. His Red Drop is your only reliance for a thorough cure in certain diseases. No. 8 Division-st., the only place now so well known for the very extraordinary cures it has performed, without diet or hindrance from business, when all other remedies only drive the disease to the blood. $1 only. This secures the patient from secondary attacks, and is the only remedy on earth that does it. Try all others and see. Observe the number, and beware of a handbill stating Dr. Hunter has removed, it is a villainous humbug.

DR. LARMONT'S PARIS AND LONDON MEDICAL ADVISER AND MARRIAGE GUIDE—20th edition, 400 pages, 100 electrotype illustrations, cloth, $1. It gives the advertised remedies, and shows the superiority of the author's Paris and London treatment of emissions, impotency, stricture, gleet, &c. He cures all such diseases at No. 6 Mercer-st., corner of Spring, opposite St. Nicholas Hotel, from 10 A. M. until 9 P. M. We recommend Dr. LARMONT to the afflicted.—Courrier des Etats Unis, Staats Zeitung, Day Book, Democrat, &c.

DR. WATSON'S NEW WORK.—"THE CAUSE AND CURE OF MARRIAGE," comprising practical remarks on premature and premature exhaustion, with local debility, induced by early indiscretion, excess or other causes, in which the nature and effects of this insidious malady, together with the treatment, are fully explained; illustrated by numerous anatomical plates and drawings, with a supplement on genito-urinary diseases. Price $1. To be had of the author, who may be consulted confidentially at No. 26 Walker-st., a few doors west of Broadway.

$500 REWARD.—CROSSMAN'S SPECIFIC MIXTURE FOR THE CURE OF GONORRHŒA.—Of all the remedies yet discovered for this complaint, this is the most certain; it makes a speedy and permanent cure, without the least restriction to diet or drink, exposure or change in application to business. The proprietor challenges a single instance of recent Gleet, Stricture or Gonorrhœa which the mixture will not cure, under forfeit of $500. Many are cured in two days. Sold at the Drug store No. 478 Broadway, corner of Chambers-st., also, at 10 Astor House, and 88 No. 100 Fulton-st., N. Y.

DR. RALPH, AUTHOR OF THE PRACTICAL Private Treatise &c., Office No. 6 Reade-st., near Broadway, Hours 9 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 P. M.; Sundays excepted. Reputation is the surest sign of disease, an immediate cure is obtained. Consultations confidential. Private cases for Philips. For treatment by letter, address Box No. 930 Post-Office.

Sixth Ward Republicans for a Registry Law.

A meeting of the Republicans of the Sixth Ward, Brooklyn, was held Friday evening last, in the church corner of Court and Butler-streets, to perfect a permanent organization. There was a large attendance, composed of some of the principal residents of the Ward, all of whom were of one mind as to the object of the meeting. A temporary organization was effected by calling Mr. CHARLES KELSEY to the Chair, and Mr. L. W. MURRAY to act as Secretary. A constitution and by-laws were adopted, and the following permanent officers elected:

President—JAMES W. JUDD.

Vice Presidents—L. W. Brainard, John Campbell.

Secretary—J. G. E. Larned.

Treasurer—P. W. Kenyon.

Executive Committee—Wm. Colt, (Chairman,) R. Garrique, F. K. Dego, P. Anthony, John Rankin.

Several short, pithy and encouraging addresses were made, and from the spirit manifested one would have supposed that it was just before, and not just after an election.

The following resolutions were offered by Mr. D. O. BRADLEY, and adopted by the Club.

Resolved, That while as Republicans we are but little disposed to be hero worshipers, yet we greatly admire the political and personal character of JOHN C. FREMONT, and name him as our first choice to lead the conquering hosts of the next campaign, and pledge ourselves to an unwavering support of the principles of the Republican Party, as expressed in the Philadelphia Platform adopted June 17, 1856.

Resolved, That our experience at the polls as canvassers, shows the utter inadequacy of the present Election laws for the preservation of the purity of the ballot-box in large cities, and that the officers of the Club be requested to call the attention of the General Committee of the county to this subject, and unite with them in preparing and circulating petitions to the next Legislature for the passage of a stringent Registry law, and such other modifications of existing laws as may be deemed necessary to secure the purity of the ballot-box.

The Club will meet every second Tuesday of each month, in the Hall, corner of Court and Sackett-streets.

MONDAY, Nov. 10—A. M.

The Foreign Trade at this port the past week amounted, in the entries of Foreign merchandise, including the Dry Goods table in our last paper, to $3,215,854, against $3,004,432 the same week last year, and the clearances of Domestic Produce and Miscellaneous Goods amounted to $1,492,364, against $1,424,908 same week last year. The Exports of Specie direct from this port, as cleared at the Custom House, including $630,000 by the Atlantic on Saturday, amounted to $701,067, and there was sent overland to Boston for shipment by the Cunarder on Wednesday last the further sum of $726,670. The Exports of Specie in corresponding week last year were $875,000 via Boston, and only $9,500 direct. The Specie balances in the Government Sub-Treasury in this city on Saturday afternoon stood $12,918,943, against $13,496,574 at the close of the previous week. This difference of $487,631 went for the most part into Bank, while the export movement of $1,488,737 will count against the Bank reserve, on the averages to be officially made up this afternoon. The interior exchanges ruling generally in favor of this City, there were several considerable parcels of Gold brought in from Philadelphia, Baltimore and other contiguous cities during the week, estimated at from $200,000 to $600,000, and with the aid from this source and the Sub-Treasury, the Bank Statement is not likely to show over half a million decrease, if so much. The reserve on the previous statement stood $11,057,675. During the present week another California packet, now in her twenty-first day from San Francisco, will be fully due, to supply the anticipated demand for bullion for England and France for the steamers sailing on Wednesday and Saturday. The Sub-Treasury balance is expected to be further reduced this week by one or two extraordinary Government disbursements on account of the Public Debt. There will be three steamer cargoes entered at the Custom-House during the week, the Fulton, from Havre, (arrived on Saturday,) and the Baltic and Europa, from Liverpool, both due in a few days. The Europa has taken the place of the Africa, in the Cunard line, after undergoing thorough repairs on the other side, and is now in her ninth day for this port.

According to the official monthly returns of the Foreign Trade at New-York, rendered by the Custom House, and which we published a few days since, the Import of Foreign Merchandise for the calendar year, from the 1st January to the 1st

The business of the week was enormous. The registered sales at the Brokers' Board averaged over 40,000 shares a day, or about two hundred and fifty thousand shares for the week. Including the list of Railway and State Bonds, the aggregate transactions of the week, at the par of each security, are full twenty-five million of dollars. This is wholly unprecedented in the history of the Stock Exchange for the past five years—the nearest approach to it being in June, 1850, when a single week's transactions, including a large auction sale of Stocks at the Merchants' Exchange, for account of the old Utica and Schenectady Company, reached about $18,150,000. The market recovered from the depression of week before last after the First Board on Monday, and continued to improve rapidly to Friday noon, when a partial check was given to the rise by a less favorable interpretation of the foreign news. On Saturday, however, the tone of business and its wide distribution among the commission as well as the jobbing members of the Board were more decided than ever, and the general market closed firm. The prices marked in the foregoing comparative list are, with the exception of Erie, which at one time brought 62 ¥ cent., about the highest of the week. The average advance in the Road Stocks is from 5@6 ¥ cent.; thus, more than restoring the list to the point from which it receded on the panic of week before last; which, so far as the Specie export is concerned, proved wholly uncalled for, as we confidently intimated it would at the time. The calculation that five millions of dollars could be spared, in the fortnight, without affecting the Bank reserve, has been more than made good thus far. The demand for Europe has taken, in all, $3,251,671, and if the further sum of $1,750,000 should go out this week—of which there is no present probability—the two arrivals from California, the disbursements from the Sub-Treasury, and the receipts from the interior, will leave the Banks stronger this day week than they stood at the close of October. It required no particular foresight to appreciate this result ten days ago; but the absence of the right sort of confidence in the resources of the country in some quarters, and the prevalence of a croaking and panic-making spirit—not wholly disinterested—in others, caused the wild surging in prices in Stock Securities which the foregoing list indicates. The sacrifices, however, made by real holders are by no means equal to the new and very low contracts made by short sellers, and the market has yet to feel the effect of these enormous speculative operations on the part of the Bears.

The Money Market has ruled quite stringent throughout the week, though the principal parties who have been denied their wants at Bank have been the merchants connected with the Foreign trade. The high ruling of discounts in England and all over the Continent, creates a certain degree of anxiety to hasten remittances from this side, and very rightly produces a corresponding caution on the part of our Banks in extending their business in mercantile paper. The great body of their customers are fairly accommodated, however, and the inconvenience to the importing interest is not a serious one, particularly as the balances actually due on this other side had been well cared for, before the late turn for money in Paris and London. The rates of discount outside of Bank are 9 to 10 ¥ cent. for strictly first-class paper, according to time, and 12 ¥ cent. for fair bills. Demand loans are made to a partial extent at 7 ¥ cent, but much larger differences obtain at the Stock Board, where the time orders through the week were very heavy.

The following handsome notice of the recent reception of Mr. GEORGE PEABODY, the American Banker of London, in his native town in Massachusetts, appears in the London Times from its Boston correspondent:

A little town called Danvers, about an hour's ride by railroad from Boston, was yesterday (the 9th) the scene of a grand popular festival which, in decorations and display, threw all recent political demonstrations, even in the metropolis of New-York, into the shade. Danvers is the birthplace of Mr. PEABODY, the well-known American banker, whose Fourth of July celebrations and amalgamation banquets of the two nations have made his name familiar in London to circles outside those of the city and commerce. He has just returned to his native town after twenty years' absence; during that time he has done good service to hundreds of his countrymen abroad, and with great munificence endowed schools, and founded a public library in his native town. On his return he was offered a public reception by the merchants of New-York, but declined it. The community for which he has done so much, however, could not be so refused, and yesterday gave him a magnificent ovation.

The whole country, for miles round, must have poured its population into the place; there were guards of honor of volunteers, well up in their drill and splendidly uniformed, chariots of many shapes, like those in the pictures of the pageantry of the ancient guilds, half a score of military bands, and a procession with flags and banners three miles long. It included so many schools of children that the problem how America peoples her "far West" so rapidly became quite intelligible; there was an emblematic party of young ladies, representing the thirty odd States of the Union, ("bleeding Kansas" judiciously omitted, no political sensation being required,) escorting three fair personations of England, Ireland, and Scotland. Mr. PEABODY's long residence in England gave an opportunity, which was very gracefully taken, to manifest the good feeling of the people towards the old country; and it pervaded all the proceedings of the day. The two flags waved everywhere together, and at the dinner, to which above 1,300 guests sat down in a gigantic tent, the same sentiment of mutual friendship gave a pleasing tone to all the speeches. It was not an official display, nor was any political party addressed by it; politics were avoided. Those present were a fair specimen of the mercantile, agricultural, and working classes of New-England; and if the same spirit animates the same classes in other great districts of the Union it is a cheering and pleasant reflection. Had the Queen of Great Britain been the Sovereign of their allegiance, her name could not have been received with warmer demonstrations of respect and regard. Hon. EDWARD EVERETT made the speech of the day—an eloquent exposition of the civilizing effects of commerce—in compliment to the man to which Mr. PEABODY belongs. It is rarely that a private gentleman receives such a proof of public admiration, but the feeling of community between the two nations is very great just now, rendering such distinction to a stranger.

The business of the week was enormous. The registered sales at the Brokers' Board averaged over 40,000 shares a day, or about two hundred and fifty thousand shares for the week. Including the list of Railway and State Bonds, the aggregate transactions of the week, at the par of each security, are full twenty-five million of dollars. This is wholly unprecedented in the history of the Stock Exchange for the past five years—the nearest approach to it being in June, 1850, when a single week's transactions, including a large auction sale of Stocks at the Merchants' Exchange, for account of the old Utica and Schenectady Company, reached about $18,150,000. The market recovered from the depression of week before last after the First Board on Monday, and continued to improve rapidly to Friday noon, when a partial check was given to the rise by a less favorable interpretation of the foreign news. On Saturday, however, the tone of business and its wide distribution among the commission as well as the jobbing members of the Board were more decided than ever, and the general market closed firm. The prices marked in the foregoing comparative list are, with the exception of Erie, which at one time brought 62 ¥ cent., about the highest of the week. The average advance in the Road Stocks is from 5@6 ¥ cent.; thus, more than restoring the list to the point from which it receded on the panic of week before last; which, so far as the Specie export is concerned, proved wholly uncalled for, as we confidently intimated it would at the time. The calculation that five millions of dollars could be spared, in the fortnight, without affecting the Bank reserve, has been more than made good thus far. The demand for Europe has taken, in all, $3,251,671, and if the further sum of $1,750,000 should go out this week—of which there is no present probability—the two arrivals from California, the disbursements from the Sub-Treasury, and the receipts from the interior, will leave the Banks stronger this day week than they stood at the close of October. It required no particular foresight to appreciate this result ten days ago; but the absence of the right sort of confidence in the resources of the country in some quarters, and the prevalence of a croaking and panic-making spirit—not wholly disinterested—in others, caused the wild surging in prices in Stock Securities which the foregoing list indicates. The sacrifices, however, made by real holders are by no means equal to the new and very low contracts made by short sellers, and the market has yet to feel the effect of these enormous speculative operations on the part of the Bears.

The Money Market has ruled quite stringent throughout the week, though the principal parties who have been denied their wants at Bank have been the merchants connected with the Foreign trade. The high ruling of discounts in England and all over the Continent, creates a certain degree of anxiety to hasten remittances from this side, and very rightly produces a corresponding caution on the part of our Banks in extending their business in mercantile paper. The great body of their customers are fairly accommodated, however, and the inconvenience to the importing interest is not a serious one, particularly as the balances actually due on this other side had been well cared for, before the late turn for money in Paris and London. The rates of discount outside of Bank are 9 to 10 ¥ cent. for strictly first-class paper, according to time, and 12 ¥ cent. for fair bills. Demand loans are made to a partial extent at 7 ¥ cent, but much larger differences obtain at the Stock Board, where the time orders through the week were very heavy.

The following handsome notice of the recent reception of Mr. GEORGE PEABODY, the American Banker of London, in his native town in Massachusetts, appears in the London Times from its Boston correspondent:

A little town called Danvers, about an hour's ride by railroad from Boston, was yesterday (the 9th) the scene of a grand popular festival which, in decorations and display, threw all recent political demonstrations, even in the metropolis of New-York, into the shade. Danvers is the birthplace of Mr. PEABODY, the well-known American banker, whose Fourth of July celebrations and amalgamation banquets of the two nations have made his name familiar in London to circles outside those of the city and commerce. He has just returned to his native town after twenty years' absence; during that time he has done good service to hundreds of his countrymen abroad, and with great munificence endowed schools, and founded a public library in his native town. On his return he was offered a public reception by the merchants of New-York, but declined it. The community for which he has done so much, however, could not be so refused, and yesterday gave him a magnificent ovation.

The whole country, for miles round, must have poured its population into the place; there were guards of honor of volunteers, well up in their drill and splendidly uniformed, chariots of many shapes, like those in the pictures of the pageantry of the ancient guilds, half a score of military bands, and a procession with flags and banners three miles long. It included so many schools of children that the problem how America peoples her "far West" so rapidly became quite intelligible; there was an emblematic party of young ladies, representing the thirty odd States of the Union, ("bleeding Kansas" judiciously omitted, no political sensation being required,) escorting three fair personations of England, Ireland, and Scotland. Mr. PEABODY's long residence in England gave an opportunity, which was very gracefully taken, to manifest the good feeling of the people towards the old country; and it pervaded all the proceedings of the day. The two flags waved everywhere together, and at the dinner, to which above 1,300 guests sat down in a gigantic tent, the same sentiment of mutual friendship gave a pleasing tone to all the speeches. It was not an official display, nor was any political party addressed by it; politics were avoided. Those present were a fair specimen of the mercantile, agricultural, and working classes of New-England; and if the same spirit animates the same classes in other great districts of the Union it is a cheering and pleasant reflection. Had the Queen of Great Britain been the Sovereign of their allegiance, her name could not have been received with warmer demonstrations of respect and regard. Hon. EDWARD EVERETT made the speech of the day—an eloquent exposition of the civilizing effects of commerce—in compliment to the man to which Mr. PEABODY belongs. It is rarely that a private gentleman receives such a proof of public admiration, but the feeling of community between the two nations is very great just now, rendering such distinction to a stranger.
